STRAND TWO

qualatative and quantitative research data links to learning outcomes in other Topics

Topic 3 Effectively contributing to communities

key skills

evaluation

action planning

reflection

collaboration

flexibility

communication

personal effectiveness

skills needed for effective action different ways of taking action

justifying approach in light of alternatives

creating change

people who have made positive contributions in social and political life comparative study - local, national, European & wider world active citizenship