STRAND THREE

qualatative and quantitative research data links to learning outcomes in other Topics

Topic 5 Human rights and responsibilities in Ireland key skills

direct and indirect discrimination entitlement to rights without distinction equality of rights

rights as a protection against those with power categories of rights rights as: universal, inalienable, indivisible; absolute, limited, and qualified right to education

positive and negative rights role and function of state bodies implementation of rights by states rights of individual vs rights of majority patterns of diversity in Ireland comparative study - local, national, European & wider world limitations of rights active citizenship

Some related thinkers:

John Locke, Robert Nozick, Paulo Freire, Martha Nussbaum, Kathleen Lynch & others.